Montana Ready Regional Work Based Learning Career Coaches

Qualifications They Bring To the Table

Work-base Partnership Development has been demonstrated in their knowledge and/or experience. Therefore, each coach will be able to tackle the following tasks:

- Develop and maintain WBL recruiting procedures with school administrators, teachers, counselors, parents, students, and business/industry.
- Partner with the Montana Department of Labor and Industry, private employers, and other pertinent stakeholders to plan and implement WBL opportunities.
- Work collaboratively with Career and Technical Student Organizations (CTSOs) of each school and assist in partnerships with business/industry.
- Assist with engaging student WBL experiences with active CTSOs in regional schools and active student participation in CTSO.
- Gather and report evidence of the impact of the work-based interventions on an ongoing basis, particularly for disproportionately impacted students.

Career Coaching has been demonstrated in their knowledge and/or experience. Therefore, each coach will be able to tackle the following tasks:

- Provide career pathway development guidance for high school and adult education students through development of a personal portfolio through the Montana Career Information System.
- Schedule and attend college campus tours and industry tours with students.
- Assist with coordinating job shadowing and other work-based learning opportunities for students to include Worlds of Work (WOW) events.
- Monitor and maintain the career coach budget and data reporting.

School-based Supports has been demonstrated in their knowledge and/or experience. Therefore, each coach will be able to tackle the following tasks:

- Assist guidance counselors, parents, and students with college admissions, financial aid—including Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)—and registration procedures.
- Provide information to educators, students, and their families regarding the current job market and career choices using Montana Department of Labor and Industry Labor Market Information (LMI) data.
- Conduct classroom presentations promoting college and career programs and activities.
- Attend appropriate regional committees and advisory boards.
